AI ANALYSIS & REASONING

Verdict: This domain is highly suspicious and assessed as malicious due to clear signs of typosquatting.

Evidence: The domain "WwW-g00gle.com" is a deliberate visual mimic of "google.com", employing "00" instead of "oo" which is a classic phishing tactic. While VirusTotal reports 0/91 flags, this clean score is overridden by the domain's inherently deceptive nature, as newly created or targeted phishing domains often evade immediate detection. The lack of an IP prevents further IP-based threat intelligence correlation.

Recommended Action: Immediately block "WwW-g00gle.com" at the network perimeter (firewall/proxy/DNS filters) to prevent user access. Furthermore, investigate if any internal users have attempted to access or been targeted by this domain, and reinforce user awareness training on identifying typosquatting and phishing attempts.
